Cashless facility restored at Max Hospital

Staff Reporter

NEW DELHI: Max Super Speciality Hospital, Saket, has announced restoration of cashless treatment services for all individual mediclaim customers and Third Party Administrator card holders after reaching an agreement on the package rate structures with PSU insurers.

Max Healthcare CEO and MD Dr. Pervez Ahmed said: "We have reached an agreement with the TPAs and services have been restored with immediate effect. We have given our suggestions on package rates for treatment under mediclaim policies to the TPAs, who are the facilitators between the insured and the insurer."
