

Dr. Rana Patir

MS., MCh Neurosurgery

Director - Neurosurgery, Max Healthcare

Education & Experience

- M.B.B.S and M.S. (General Surgery) from All India Institute of Medical Sciences, New Delhi (AIIMS).
- Thereafter he spent two years performing complex head and neck procedures as well as reconstructive surgery in a speciality unit at AIIMS.
- Then did his M.Ch. (Neurosurgery) from the All India Institute of Medical Sciences, New Delhi (AIIMS).
- After that a year's stint as a consultant at Institute of Neurosciences at Guwahati, Assam.
- Worked as Neurosurgery faculty at AIIMS for six years before stepping out into private practice.
- Spent a year in the Regional Neurosciences centre at Newcastle upon Tyne.
- Worked as a fellow at Frenchay Hospital, Bristol.

Contribution

While at All India Institute of Medical Sciences, Dr Rana Patir initiated and developed various subspecialities including

- Spine surgery
- Endoscopic surgery
- Stereotactic surgery for movement disorders
- Surgery at the craniovertebral junction
- Extra cranial-intracranial bypass surgery.

Areas of Interest

Apart from those mentioned above, he has keen interest in:

- Epilepsy surgery
- Paediatric neurosurgery
- Neuromodulation, especially for pain management
- Skull base surgery
- Neurovascular surgery
- Minimal invasive brain and spine surgery.

Academics and Research

- He was teaching at AIIMS and subsequently for the DNB Neurosurgery programme at Sir Ganga Ram Hospital, New Delhi
- Contributed many papers and chapters in peer reviewed national and international medical journals and text books.

For appointment please call +91 98103 49066

