

DR. ROOPA SALWAN

Director – Myocardial Infarction Program, Max Healthcare & Senior Consultant – Cardiology & Interventional Cardiology

Dr. Salwan has done MBBS in 1986 and MD (Medicine) in 1993 from Maulana Azad Medical College and LNJP Hospital, New Delhi. She completed her DM in Cardiology from G B Pant Hospital, Delhi University in 1996. Dr. Salwan has been active in the field of Cardiology for the last one decade. She has vast experience of Interventional Cardiology at Escorts Heart Institute and Research Centre where she was working in the capacity of Consultant – Interventional Cardiologist for 7 years. Dr. Salwan has been involved with setting up training program for Fellowship in Interventional Cardiology at Escorts & Max Heart and has contributed articles to several Medical journals.

She is Governor and founder member of Endovascular Intervention Society of India. Dr. Salwan has special interest in – Cardiovascular disease in women, Endovascular repair of Aneurysms, Dissections, Complex Coronary Interventions - Vein graft interventions, Peripheral vascular disease and Thrombotic diseases.

She is passionate about quality and ethics in practice, and striving to develop Max Heart as a Centre of Excellence for Acute Coronary Care particularly Acute Myocardial Infarction treatment.